

The level of specialization offered by our firm extends well beyond the services that traditional accounting firms provide. People typically associate CPAs with tax returns and compliance with governmental tax requirements. We do that very well, but the and more part of our business focuses on adding value through our expertise in providing innovative consulting services to corporations, small businesses and individuals.

Accountancy and More...

MORE ANALYSIS...

We listen carefully and thoroughly analyze our clients' information and challenge their methods if necessary. We excel at team-based problem solving and proactively look for ways to save our clients tax dollars.

MORE TARGETED SOLUTIONS...

We encourage clients to look beyond the cost of our service to focus on the long-term benefits that result from implementing our recommendations - benefits such as greater tax savings and improved profitability.

MORE PLANNING...

We play an integral part in helping our business and individual clients plan for the end of the tax year so there won't be any surprises, which also leaves our clients a window of opportunity to make strategic changes.

MORE PROACTIVE COMMUNICATION...

Every member of our firm is immersed in client service and is dedicated to communicating proactively with clients, as well as building long-term relationships.
